Caroline Kurtizkes
Legislative Aide
Sen. Jeff Merkley (D-OR)

Dear Caroline,

World Vision is pleased to invite you on a bipartisan, bicameral Staff Learning Trip to New York City, where you will have the opportunity to learn more about the role of the United Nations in addressing global poverty, maintaining international peace and security, and promoting human rights, with a particular focus on UN programs addressing the needs of women and children. The trip will take place from October 21 - 22, 2021.

As a founding member of the United Nations and host of its headquarters, the United States has played an important leadership role in the organization for more than seventy years. The United States also remains the largest donor to the United Nations, contributing roughly $11 billion in 2019. This represents about one-fifth of the annual US foreign aid budget. From peacekeeping missions that promote stability, to its work on nonproliferation, counterterrorism, human rights, and humanitarian relief and development, the UN is a force-multiplier for US foreign assistance.

In New York, you'll have the chance to tour the United Nations, meet with the USUN Mission, and learn more about the work of UN agencies like UNFPA and UNICEF to address the needs of women and children globally. Please see the attached draft trip itinerary for more details and please reach out if you have any questions.

I hope that you will be able to participate in this educational and exciting trip.

Sincerely,

Robert Zachritz
Vice President of Advocacy
World Vision US

World Vision is a Christian humanitarian organization conducting relief, development, and advocacy activities in its work with children, families, and their communities in nearly 100 countries to help them reach their full potential by tackling the causes of poverty and injustice. World Vision serves all people regardless of religion, race, ethnicity, or gender.

Caroline Kuritzkes
Office of Senator Jeff Merkley
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Ms. Kuritzkes:

This responds to your recent correspondence requesting approval from the Select Committee on Ethics (the Committee) to accept an invitation you received to travel on a fact-finding trip in New York, New York, on October 21–22, 2021, sponsored by World Vision, Inc. Provided that you adhere to the guidance set forth below, it appears that it is permissible for you to accept necessary expenses from World Vision, Inc. in connection with this trip.

Background

Based on your communication with the Committee, the background in this matter is as follows.¹ You are employed as a Legislative Aide in the Office of Senator Jeff Merkley. World Vision, Inc. invited you to travel on a fact-finding trip in New York, New York, on October 21–22, 2021. World Vision, Inc. certified to the Committee that it will pay the necessary expenses² related to the travel and that it is neither a lobbyist, lobbying firm, agent of a foreign principal, or otherwise acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government. World Vision, Inc. has also certified that it does not retain or employ a registered lobbyist or agent of a foreign principal and that no registered lobbyist or agent of a foreign principal will accompany you at any point throughout your trip.³

Additionally, you inform the Committee that you plan to extend your trip for a personal purpose. Based on the information you submitted, the Committee understands that, for a personal purpose, you intend to extend your trip in New York for less than one day after the conclusion of officially related events. The Committee also understands that you will pay for your return transportation to Washington, DC. In addition, you must personally pay the cost of any additional expenses incurred as a result of extending your trip.

¹ If this letter does not correctly recite the facts, contact the Committee immediately.

² The term “necessary expenses” has a specific definition. See Select Committee on Ethics’ Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel – Glossary of Terms at 8.

³ The term “any point throughout your trip” has a specific definition. See id. at 2.

Discussion

Privately-sponsored travel includes any gift of travel and travel-related expenses for travel outside the Senate duty station, including transportation, lodging, food and refreshments, and conference fees and materials, whether paid for directly, reimbursed, or provided directly, from a private individual or entity, in connection with a Member's, officer's, or employee's official Senate duties. Incorporating reforms from the Honest Leadership and Open Government Act of 2007 (HLOGA), Pub. L. 110-81 (2007), Senate Rule 35.2 permits Members, officers, and employees to accept privately-sponsored travel only with the prior written approval of the Committee.

The Committee's approval process is governed by the Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel and Glossary of Terms (collectively, Travel Regulations). The Travel Regulations contain detailed requirements regarding who may sponsor travel; time limits for trips; and the type and amount of expenses that can be reimbursed.

Entities that do not retain or employ a lobbyist or foreign agent and all non-profit organizations designated as tax-exempt organizations under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, regardless of whether they retain or employ a lobbyist or foreign agent, may sponsor domestic trips for up to three days. The three-day limitation means three 24-hour periods, calculated from the time of arrival in the trip location to the time of departure from the trip location. For such trips, neither lobbyists nor foreign agents may accompany a Senate invitee at any point throughout the trip, other than in a de minimis way.⁴ This means that neither lobbyists nor foreign agents may accompany Senate invitees at any point to and from the event, at the event itself, or at the location being visited.⁵

Under Senate Rule 35, Senate staff must receive advance authorization signed by the Member or officer under whose direct supervision the individual works in order to accept payment or reimbursement for necessary expenses related to fact-finding travel. Further, such authorization and expenses must be disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate by filing the completed Employee Pre-Travel Authorization and the Employee Post-Travel Disclosure of Travel Expenses (Form RE-1 and Form RE-2), along with a copy of the Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form, and all relevant attachments (e.g., the private sponsor's invitation and itinerary) within 30 days of the conclusion of Privately-Sponsored Travel.⁶

Consistent with these standards and Committee precedent, World Vision, Inc.'s factual representations, and the guidance contained in this letter regarding extending your trip for a personal purpose, it appears that it is permissible for you to accept necessary expenses from World Vision, Inc. in connection with this trip, provided that the actual travel and travel-related expenses conform to the information and materials you provided, and the travel and all required documents are disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate (Office of Public Records).

⁴ The term "de minimis" has a specific definition. See Select Committee on Ethics' Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel – Glossary of Terms at 3.

⁵ See Select Committee on Ethics' Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel at 5; see also Select Committee on Ethics' Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel – Glossary of Terms at 2-3.

⁶ Trip extensions for any purpose do not extend this deadline.

Finally, Senate Rule 34 requires a reporting individual,⁷ on his or her Financial Disclosure Report, to make an annual disclosure of the receipt of payments or reimbursements under Senate Rule 35 from a private sponsor for officially-related travel expenses where, in the aggregate, travel expenses exceed $415 from that sponsor during a calendar year. However, if a Member, officer, or employee properly reports the receipt of necessary expenses for such travel to the Secretary of the Senate within 30 days of the travel, as discussed above, the travel expenses need not be disclosed a second time on their Financial Disclosure Report.

I hope you find this information helpful. If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Committee.

Sincerely,

Shannon Hamilton Kopplin
Chief Counsel and Staff Director

⁷ A reporting individual is someone whose salary equals or exceeds 120% of the basic rate of pay for GS-15 ($132,552 for CY 2021) or is a political fund designee and is required to file Financial Disclosure Reports.
